I found "After This" to be a beautifully written, open memoir of the author's journey.

The Journey

Basically, Groupon was taking the money it was spending on advertising to acquire new subscribers to its email and not counting that money as a quarterly, recurring expense - but as a one-time, capital expense, the way Google might account for the cost of building a new server farm. End-time conditions, Jesus said, will worsen to the point that human survival will be at stake.
